Truly A Record Night

LINC Housing offers a special thanks to all of our sponsors, partners, board, and staff who joined us on July 24 for LINC's 35th anniversary at The GRAMMY Museum @ L.A. LIVE. We enjoyed your support and your karaoke performances! We're just beginning our next chapter – stay tuned for more on what the future holds for LINC. In the meantime, check out a few photos from A Record Night!

LINC was pleased to share a glimpse of where we've been and where the organization is headed. Watch LINC's new video, which shares the stories of a few of our residents whose lives have been transformed through access to affordable and supportive housing.

Summer Fun

This year marks the 15th anniversary of LINC Cares resident services, and kids at 13 LINC communities across California celebrated with six weeks of learning and fun. Children challenged themselves with science experiments, tested knife-free cooking recipes, read daily, played sports, enjoyed field trips, and more. Field Supervisor Clare Ofield, who began LINC's first summer program, says "LINC believes that providing opportunities for summer learning sets the stage for innovation, creativity, and leadership in every community." Construction Going Strong at the Spark Spark at Midtown in Long Beach is becoming more real every day! A drive down Long Beach Boulevard shows the progress on these 95 affordable and supportive apartments with community serving retail. The basement level has been poured and we are on to building the first floor!

The Corner Pop-Up

LINC Housing and the City of Long Beach celebrated the ribbon cutting at The Corner Pop-Up, a re-imagined use of the storefront at The Palace. Starting this fall, Long Beach entrepreneurs will have the opportunity to sell their products at this rotating pop-up space. This initiative is part of the City's work to build on its Economic Blueprint, further investing in economic equity efforts, and connecting the city's rich cultural diversity to entrepreneurial programs and business assistance.
